

COVID Impact Statement

Candidate 8277T

May 16, 2021

Due to the computational nature of my project, it was not significantly impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. The primary limitation was through the difficulty of accessing additional computational resources due to remote working. Efforts to open accounts on servers within the group/through the university cluster were further hampered by a lack of access to university Wi-Fi, and VPN technical issues.